Terms and Conditions of appointment of Independent Directors

1. Period of Appointment

Subject to the provisions of Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013, the appointment shall be for the term of 5 years. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this letter, the appointment may be terminated at any time by the Company in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 or Articles of Association or the Directors may resign by written notice. It is desirable that the Director gives the Chairman reasonable forewarning of his/her intentions to resign or to not seek re-election (where that is possible) so that the Company can plan for succession of skills and experience on the board. Upon such termination or resignation for any reason, the Director shall not be entitled to any damages for loss of office and no fee will be payable to the Director in respect of any unexpired portion of the term of the Appointment.

2. Expectation of the Board from the appointed Director

6. The Directors shall not:

- Misuse the information in his/her possession.
- Engage in any way {both directly and indirectly} in any activity having conflict of interest with that of the Company.
- Break any law of the land or indulge or provoke the co-directors or employees to do the same.
- Enter into any contract or arrangement wherein he is directly or indirectly interested as per the provisions of the act.
- A director of a company shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to himself or to his relatives, partners, or associates and if such director is found guilty of making any undue gain, he shall be liable to pay an amount equal to that gain to the company.
- A director of a company shall not assign his office and any assignment so made shall be void.

7. The Independent Directors shall be paid sitting fees, as may be determined by the Board, for participating in the Board, Committee Meetings or other meetings. The out of pocket expenses reasonably incurred by the Directors for attending the Board or Committee Meetings or any other work of the Company may be reimbursed.

8. Confidentiality:

The Director must apply the highest standards of confidentiality and not disclose to any person or company (whether during the course of the Appointment or at any time after its termination) any confidential information concerning the Company and any Group Companies with which the Director comes into contact by virtue of his/her position as an Independent Director of the Company.

The attention is drawn to the requirements under the applicable laws as to the disclosure of price-sensitive information. Consequently he/she should avoid making any statements that might risk a breach of these requirements without prior clearance from the other Members of the Board of Directors of the Company. On termination of the Appointment the Director will deliver to the Company all books, document, papers and other property of or relating to the business of the Company which are in his/her possession, custody or power by virtue of his/her position as an Independent Director of the Company. The Company may arrange the disposal of papers that the Director no longer requires.

9. An Independent Director shall not serve as an independent director in more than seven listed companies or such number of listed Companies as may be stipulated by the Listing Agreement or any other law of the land, for the time being in force.
